This chart courtesy sources listed shows a major breakout appears to be on the horizon. An upside breakout now will be similar to 2005 on this chart.

The Most Accurate Long-Term Predictions Ever On Time And Price In The Gold

Community

Posted June 21st, 2019 at 8:49 AM (CST) by Jim Sinclair & filed under General Editorial.

The most accurate long-term predictions ever on time and price in the gold community. Right again, timing wise, since 1968.

"Gold price predicted, many months ago, to start mid November 2019 break of $1400, even if interday, to $50,000 in second quarter of 2025" – Jim Sinclair

Jim Sinclair
 Executive Chairman
j.sinclair@tangoldcorp.com

www.jsmineset.com

This quote from Mr. Gold, Jim Sinclair, (may he rest in peace), is one I just found at goldtadise.com. Mr. Sinclair's target (he referred to as 'angels' all came to pass. In the event that this last 'angel' comes true, we may not like the social conditions that prevail at that time!

Featured is the weekly gold chart. The green arrows point to bottoms in the 7-8 week gold cycle, the brown arrows point to tops. Next week will be #2 in the current cycle.

This chart compares gold to the S&P 500. The breakout at the blue arrow shows gold outperforming stocks.

Featured is GDX the miners ETF. Price has confirmed the breakout from a rising wedge. This is usually very bullish. Since price is now in 'blue sky', we can't put a target on it. We'll just hold on tight.

Featured is GDXJ consisting of junior explorers. Price was rising inside the blue channel and the breakout at the blue arrow sets up a target at 70. The SIs and MAs are positive.

=== >>> MODEL PORTFOLIO

Each report will show the trades that were completed since the last report.

Since I do most of my trading on the TSX, I will show the stock symbol for the US equivalent in brackets. Note: when trading a pink sheet listed stock, you should always buy or sell using a specific price - never a 'market' order.

To benefit from this feature, pull up a chart for any of the symbols that I buy or sell. Determine if you want to do likewise or wait for another opportunity. If you're not sure of the fundamentals, - click on the website link provided. Always make sure the index or ETF that represents the sector is in harmony with your trade. I apologize for the short time I stay in some stocks, but this is all based on chart patterns. If the chart pattern changes from positive to negative - I usually run. Here are some of my trading habits:

- I eliminate all emotion. Stocks are simply investments that I use to improve the bottom line. I pick a stock or commodity because I think the chart pattern looks positive. Once I decide that we are operating in a bull market, I don't bother with sell stops - I patiently wait for the stock or ETF to come back into positive territory.

- When I do sell below my cost, I look at the loss as an opportunity to get into a winner.
- I use the 20 day and 30 day exponential moving averages at Stockcharts.com to help me decide when to buy and when to sell. Then I draw a channel, just as I do in the reports I issue. As long as the stock stays in the channel, I'll keep it as part of the portfolio, unless I decide to take profits.
- You've heard people say: 'Buy Low – Sell High'. Here is a variation on that advice: BUY HIGH – SELL HIGHER! It has been my experience that buying stocks that have just broken out to a new 5 year high have been the best performers in my portfolio. When a stock or commodity has reached this stage, there is 'blue sky' ahead.
- Next I look at the supporting indicators – especially the Accumulation/Distribution line. When a stock or commodity becomes overbought (such as trading near the top of the channel, or making a 'double or triple' top), I usually sell all or part of my holding into the rally. . Over time I try to replace these stocks during pullbacks.
- Finally I make sure that the sector in which the stock or commodity operates, is moving in the same direction as the stock of commodity that I am about to buy.

Here are some kernels of wisdom from a very successful trader, Jesse Stine:

- Emotional intelligence is of utmost importance.
- Discipline is key
- Drawdowns are lessons.
- Patience is very important
- Ignore the news media
- Have faith in your system
- Trade with confidence
- Never get attached to a stock
- Be a contrarian
- Be a lone wolf.

This info block on the gold to silver ratio was sent to me by a friend.

Featured is the silver chart. Price is carving out a trading zone. A close above the blue arrow sets up a target at the green arrow. The SIs are positive and the MAs are in positive alignment and rising. The number of ounces backing SLV is 453.4 million. Up from 435.4 a month ago.

Featured is SIL the silver producers ETF. Price is carving out an ARAT pattern. A close above the green arrow will confirm an upside breakout, with a target at 50.

Featured is the US dollar index. Price appears to be breaking down at the brown arrow.
 The green arrows point to levels of support.

Featured is the S&P 500 index. Price has been rising inside the blue channel. A close above the blue arrow will prove the uptrend to be resuming, but a drop below the brown arrow will seek support at the green arrow.

Christ is Risen Indeed

But now is Christ risen from the dead and become the first fruits of those who have fallen asleep.

— 1 Corinthians 15:20

My friends, the evidence for the resurrection of Jesus Christ, the evidence for the revelation of God in the Scripture is overwhelming. One of greatest authorities in the history of evidences who ever lived was Dr. Simon Greenleaf (1783-1853) of Harvard Law School. He examined the evidence for the Resurrection and demonstrated in his classic book, The Testimony of the Evangelists, that it would hold up in any court of law. Irrational blind faith? Hardly!

On that Sunday morning, unseen by human eyes, there descended the omnipotent and supernatural hand of God, right through that stone, and touched the body of the Beloved Son, and Jesus arose from the dead, quickened by the immeasurable and illimitable power of God Almighty.

This is the greatest fact of history. Jesus changed all history when He came out of that tomb, victorious over the grave.

Because He lives, we shall also live.
